JOHN L. ALLEN

Chief Operating Officer

The 2004 season marks John Allen's 15th season in professional baseball and his 10th with the Cincinnati Reds. Mr. Allen originally joined the organization in May 1995 as controller. In June 1996, he was named "interim" managing executive and was named managing executive two months later. On Oct. 1, 1999, he was named chief operating officer.

Mr. Allen is responsible for all operations of the organization, reporting directly to Carl H. Lindner, the Reds' chief executive officer. He has regularly attended Major League Baseball and ownership meetings since 1996.

John began his baseball career in 1990 as an intern with the Columbus Clippers, the Class-AAA minor league affiliate of the New York Yankees. He was subsequently named the club's director of business operations. While in Columbus, he also earned a master's degree in sport management at The Ohio State University.

Mr. Allen has put the focus on the playing field rather than on the Reds front office or the business side of baseball. He has been dedicated to constant improvement in scouting and player development. To that end, the Reds search for talent has expanded, especially in Latin American countries. His agenda has also included such fan-friendly activities as Redsfest, increased player contact for fans, the annual winter caravan, season-ticket holder luncheons, ticket discounts and "Run the Bases."

John was involved in all aspects of the development and construction of Great American Ball Park. This includes the sales tax issue in the fall of 1995, lease negotiations, Issue 11 for the location of the ballpark and countless hours of design and construction meetings.

Under Mr. Allen's tutelage, special efforts have been made to recognize the organization's rich history. Replicas of the retired jerseys of Fred Hutchinson and Johnny Bench were displayed for the first time in a special ceremony on Sept. 1, 1996. Since then the organization has retired the jerseys of Joe Morgan, Frank Robinson, Ted Kluszewski and Tony Perez.

John was born in Norton, Kan., and graduated from Norton Community High School, where he participated in baseball, football, basketball and track. He served in Vietnam, where he was wounded in action and decorated for his efforts. Following active duty, he attended Kansas State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree. John currently serves on the Finance Advisory Board at KSU.

Mr. Allen has been honored with the Certificate of Friendship from the Cincinnati Human Relations Commission and the Community Service Award from the Talbert House. Cincinnati Magazine also has honored him in its annual "Best of Cincinnati" issue.

He is a life member of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans organizations. He serves on the board of directors of the Cincinnati Reds Community Fund, the Greater Cincinnati Convention and Visitors Bureau, the Dan Beard Council of the Boy Scouts of America, MLB Enterprises, Inc. and serves on the Kid Glove Committee. He also serves on the advisory boards for the Northern Kentucky Chamber of Commerce and the Cincinnati chapter of Operation Smile.

John and his wife, Anna, reside in Newport, Ky. John has two children, Christopher and Sarah.

DAN O'BRIEN

General Manager

Dan O'Brien was named the 16th general manager in franchise history on Oct. 27, 2003, when he signed a three-year contract that runs through the 2006 season. During O'Brien's early tenure with the Reds, he has restructured the front-office operation as a means to improve organizational productivity and efficiency. Respectful of the Reds' rich baseball heritage, he has refocused the organization's commitment and emphasis on player development and scouting. To that end he has realigned and expanded the scouting operation into three separate departments focusing on amateur, international and professional scouting. In concert with these changes, the Player Development department has broadened its operation with the addition of several key staff members.

O'Brien was the assistant general manager/baseball operations with the Texas Rangers for the seven seasons prior to his current position. He was involved in all areas of baseball operations, including personnel evaluations, contract negotiations, player trades and free-agent acquisitions. He supervised the Professional Scouting department and Pacific Rim operations, as well.

The Columbus native joined the Rangers in October 1996 after working 15 seasons for the Houston Astros. He joined the Astros initially as assistant director of minor leagues and scouting. Eventually he was promoted to director of scouting operations in June 1984 and was later promoted to the position of director of player development and scouting in November 1995 and oversaw one of the more productive farm systems in the game.

During O'Brien's tenure in Houston, the Astros significantly increased their international-scouting operation in Latin American countries and Australia. He had a hand in scouting and signing current Major Leaguers Bobby Abreu, Craig Biggio, Richard Hidalgo, Kenny Lofton, Wade Miller, Phil Nevin, Roy Oswalt, Billy Wagner, Freddy Garcia, Carlos Guillen, Luis Gonzalez, Johan Santana and Shane Reynolds.

In 1977, O'Brien earned a master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University, where he was an assistant baseball coach. He worked for the Seattle Mariners from 1977-81, first as assistant director of group sales, then as director of group sales and eventually as assistant director of business affairs. He joined the Astros organization in December of 1981.

The son of long-time Major League Executive Dan O'Brien Sr. began his baseball career in 1974 while working for the Rangers while attending college. In 1976 he graduated with honors from Rollins College with a double major in business and economics and earned a Rhodes Scholarship nomination. He also played baseball at Rollins.

Dan and his wife, Gail, plan to relocate to the greater Cincinnati area.

Bernie Stowe began his career with the Reds in 1947 as a clubhouse boy and worked his way up through the organization to earn a position as the Reds' equipment manager in 1968. Bernie was selected as the National League's All-Star batboy in 1953 and has been the NL All-Star equipment manager four times (1970, '71, '73, '88) during his illustrious career.

Bernie, now in his 57th year with the club, was honored in 2001 by the Baseball Equipment Managers Association for his years of service and is currently the game's longest-serving equipment manager. Prior to the start of the 2003 season, the home clubhouse in Great American Ball Park was officially named after Bernie to honor his longtime service to the club. Team owner Carl Lindner, COO John Allen, Johnny Bench, players and family members were on hand for the ceremony. Louisville Bats - AAA

The Louisville Bats spent most of the 2003 season in first place in the West Division of the International League. Despite a record-setting amount of transactions and a managerial change, the Bats finished 79-64, 3.5 games ahead of second-place Columbus (Yankees).

Louisville's season ended in the first round of the Governors' Cup playoffs, where they were beaten by Durham (Devil Rays), 3 games to 1.

Dave Miley, managing in his 14th season in the Reds organization, his fourth season at Louisville, guided the club to a 62-47 mark before he was named interim manager of the Reds on 7/28. Pitching coach Mack Jenkins (1-0) managed the club for a game and Rick Burleson (16-17) was promoted from Rookie Billings to finish the season.

3b Brandon Larson (.323, 20hr, 74rbi) produced another outstanding season as he was an International League All-Star for the second straight year despite playing only 72 games with the Bats. From 5/15-6/21, Larson recorded a franchise-record 26-game hitting streak (39-106, .368, 5hr, 25rbi).

The Bats continued to be the hottest ticket in the International League as they led the circuit in attendance for the fourth straight season, averaging 9,307 fans per game at Louisville Slugger Field (651,510).

Chattanooga Lookouts - AA

Despite a 66-74 record, the Lookouts had some positives in the 2003 season as four players made their Major League debuts without playing a single game at the Triple-A level.

Leading the team was OF Stephen Smitherman, who ranked among the Southern League leaders in on-base percentage (1st, .402), slugging percentage (2nd, .534), homers (3rd, 19) and batting average (T3rd, .310).

In addition to Smitherman, SS Ray Olmedo (.294, 2hr, 15rbi), C Dane Sardinha (.256, 3hr, 32rbi) and RHP Josh Hall (8-10, 3.47) also made their Major League debuts in 2003.

The Chattanooga offense led the Southern League with 660 runs and 104 homers. Unfortunately, the pitching staff posted a league-high 4.08 ERA and allowed 96 homers, which was second in the league.

Phillip Wellman completed his seventh season as a skipper in the Reds' minor-league system, his fourth season at Chattanooga (1999, 2001-2003).

Potomac Cannons - A

In their first season as a Reds affiliate, the Potomac Cannons went 62-77.

At 30-39, the Cannons finished the first half of the season in third place in the Northern Division of the Carolina League, 9.0 games behind Lynchburg (Pirates).

The Cannons followed with a 32-38 record in the second half of the season, finishing in fourth place, 10.0 games behind Wilmington (Royals).

Though finishing under .500, there were some bright spots for second-year manager Jayhawk Owens.

C/1b Jesse Gutierrez enjoyed a tremendous season as he ranked among the Carolina League leaders in home runs (T4th, 16), RBI (4th, 76) and slugging percentage (4th, .463). Those numbers earned Gutierrez a promotion to Double-A Chattanooga.

SS Jeff Bannon (.295, 8hr, 42rbi) also had a fine season as he was the lone Cannons' representative on the league's Year-End All-Star Team.

Dayton Dragons - A

At 61-78, Dayton failed to qualify for the Midwest League playoffs for the first time in its four-year history.

Manager Donnie Scott led the team to a .500 record in the first half of the season. At 35-35, the Dragons finished in fourth place in the Eastern Division, 6.0 games behind Fort Wayne (Padres).

Largely due to injuries and promotions, Dayton fell to 26-43 in the second half of the season, finishing in sixth place, 17.5 games behind South Bend (D'Backs).

The Dragons' most consistent player in 2003 was 2b Kevin Howard (.285, 9hr, 75rbi). Howard was the only Dayton player selected as a starter in the Midwest League All-Star Game.

The Dragons' top pitcher was right-hander Eddy Valdez, who went 11-3 with a 3.72 ERA in 19 starts.

Dayton once again led the Midwest League in attendance as they averaged 8,434 fans per game (590,382). The club has sold out every home game in its brief history.

JULY 28

On that date the Reds announced that the contracts of general manager Jim Bowden, field manager Bob Boone, hitting coach Tom Robson and third-base coach Tim Lincecum would not be renewed for the 2004 season...all were relieved of their duties...Class AAA Louisville manager Dave Miley managed the club on an interim basis through the end of this season...bench coach Ray Knight served as the club's hitting coach and third-base coach...bullpen catcher Mark Berry became the new bench coach...minor league infield coordinator Freddie Benavides joined the staff as a coach...GCL Reds hitting coach Marco Davalillo served as bullpen catcher...the Reds went 190-238 (.444) under Boone, including 46-58 in 2003...after the firings the Reds went 23-35, including 1-0 under Knight and 22-35 under Miley.

HISTORY

Joe Nuxhall, the Reds Hall of Fame left-hander, pitched in the Major Leagues for 16 years, including all or parts of 15 seasons in Cincinnati.

History of the Cincinnati Reds

Important Dates

May 4, 1869 – The 1869 Cincinnati Red Stockings, the first all-professional nine, kick off their first regular season with a 45-9 win over the Great Westerns of Cincinnati.

Nov. 6, 1869 – In the final official match of the season, the Red Stockings defeat the Mutuals of New York, 17-8, on Union Grounds. Baseball's first team of professionals finished the season a perfect 57-0 record (although the team won more than 70 games, team captain Harry Wright only counted games against other National Association clubs as official).

June 14, 1870 – After 130 consecutive games without a loss, Cincinnati falls to the Brooklyn Atlantics, 8-7, in extra innings. The streak includes 81 official games and 49 exhibitions.

Feb. 2, 1876 – The National League is formed in New York City with Cincinnati as a charter member. The other cities in the league include Chicago, Boston, St. Louis, Hartford, Louisville, New York and Philadelphia.

Oct. 8, 1880 – Cincinnati is expelled from the NL, due in part to its refusal to stop renting out their ballpark on Sundays and to cease selling beer during games.

Nov. 2, 1881 – The American Association is formed during a meeting at the Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati. The Reds would play their next eight seasons in the league.

April 17, 1889 – The first Opening Day "festivities" are seen in Cincinnati. Ballpark decorations and a pre-game concert by the Cincinnati Orchestra greet fans before the opener.

Nov. 14, 1889 – Cincinnati is granted re-admission to the NL, joining Boston, Brooklyn, Chicago, Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

April 22, 1891 – The first Opening Day parade is organized by new team owner John T. Brush. The parade consists of Webber's military band and two large horse-drawn wagons, called Tally-ho's, which were occupied by the Reds and their opponents, the Cleveland Spiders.

Oct. 3, 1905 – Cy Seymour wins the NL batting title and sets the club record with a .377 batting average for the season.

April 11, 1912 – Redland Field (later known as Crosley Field) hosts its first game as the Reds beat Chicago, 10-6. The official dedication of the ballpark comes the following month on May 18.

Oct. 9, 1919 – Cincinnati claims its very first World Series Championship in Game 8 of the best-of-nine series against the Chicago White Sox. On Sept. 24, 1920, the title is tarnished as several members of the White Sox are suspended for allegedly "throwing" the Series. Cincinnati insists the club would have won anyway.

April 16, 1934 – The Cincinnati Reds board of directors rename Redland Field "Crosley Field" in honor of new team owner Powel Crosley Jr. Crosley, a radio tycoon, bought the team earlier in the year on Feb. 4, assuring that the team, which had been hit hard by the Depression, would stay in Cincinnati.

June 8, 1934 – The Reds become the first team in Major League history to use an airplane to travel from one city to another (Cincinnati to Chicago).

May 24, 1935 – The first night game in Major League history is played at Crosley Field. The Reds beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-1, before 20,422 fans.

Jan. 27, 1937 – Crosley Field's playing surface is submerged under 21 feet of water due to local creek flooding. Reds pitcher Lee Grissom and groundskeeper Matty Schwab are photographed in a rowboat crossing the playing surface.

June 15, 1938 – Johnny Vander Meer makes baseball history by pitching a second consecutive no-hitter during a 6-0 win over the Dodgers in Brooklyn. Four days earlier, he held the Boston Braves hitless during a 3-0 win at Crosley Field.

July 6, 1938 – Crosley Field plays host to the sixth annual All-Star Game. Ernie Lombardi, Paul Derringer, Ival Goodman, Frank McCormick and Johnny Vander Meer represent the Reds on the NL squad. Vander Meer tosses three scoreless innings as the NL wins, 4-1.

Retired Uniform Numbers

Fred Hutchinson

Born: August 12, 1919
Birthplace: Seattle, Washington
Died: November 12, 1964
Number Retired: 1965

Fred Hutchinson was a popular and successful manager of the Cincinnati Reds. Hutch's 466 managerial victories and .543 winning percentage rank him among the best managers ever to wear a Cincinnati uniform. The Reds exceeded the 90-win mark in three of his six seasons at the helm, and in 1961 they took the National League pennant.

But the joy of a first-place finish was matched only three years later by the sadness of Hutch's illness and early death. The courage, class and determination that Fred exemplified all his life were all the more evident during his battle with cancer. Hutch stepped down as Reds manager in 1964, and died that November.

The following year, Hutch's uniform (No. 1) became the first one in Cincinnati Reds history to be retired.

Today, Fred Hutchinson's legacy lives on in the world-renowned Cancer Research Center that bears his name, and in The Hutch Award. It is given annually to a Major League ballplayer who "best exemplifies the character and fighting spirit of the late Fred Hutchinson...who overcomes any form of adversity." Past winners include Ray Knight, Ron Oester, Eric Davis, Bobby Tolan, Johnny Bench and Sean Casey.

Born: December 7, 1947
Birthplace: Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
Number Retired: August 11, 1984

Cincinnati's uniform No. 5 belongs to perhaps the greatest catcher to ever play in the Major Leagues. The standard by which all other catchers are measured, Johnny Bench ended his 17-year storied career in 1983 after earning two MVP Awards, 10 Gold Gloves and 14 trips to the All-Star Game. Bench was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989.

Bench began his career with a bang, earning Rookie-of-the-Year honors in 1968. Able to control a game on both sides of the plate, he ended his career with a .267 average and 389 homers (327 as a catcher, which at the time stood as a record for NL catchers).

On the Reds' all-time batting list, Bench ranks first in homers and RBI (1,376), second in runs (1,091), extra-base hits (794) and total bases (3,644), third in hits (2,048) and doubles (381).

Johnny appeared in 22 National League Championship Series games and 23 World Series games. Bench earned World Series MVP honors in 1976 when the Reds swept the NY Yankees, four games to none. He twice led the league in home runs (1970 with 45, and 1972 with 40), and three times in RBI (1970 with 148, 1972 with 125, and 1974 with 129).

GRIFFEY SR., WHITE, HOWSAM TO JOIN REDS HALL OF FAME 62nd, 63rd & 64th Inductees

All-Star outfielder Ken Griffey Sr., 19th-century pitcher Will White and front office executive Bob Howsam will be inducted into the Reds Hall of Fame during the 2004 season. The trio was selected by the Cincinnati chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America.

Griffey, 54, was a 19-year Major League veteran and 3-time All-Star right fielder for the Big Red Machine who helped produce World Series championships in Cincinnati in 1975 and 1976 by hitting .305 and .336 (2nd in the NL), respectively. Originally selected by the Reds in the 29th round of the June 1969 free-agent draft, he became a full-time player for the Reds during the 1975 season and over the next 7 years appeared with the Reds in 3 National League Championship Series and 2 World Series.

He finished his Major League career with a .296 batting average, 152 homers and 200 stolen bases in 2,097 games. He hit .303 in 1,224 games for the Reds, hit at least 1 homer against every club except Cleveland, 6 times he hit at least .300 and 3 times he recorded at least 20 stolen bases in a season. In 1980, Griffey was voted the Reds' Most Valuable Player after hitting .294 with 23 steals in 146g. After he retired as a player, he spent 6 seasons on the Reds' Major League coaching staff and the last 3 years has worked for the club as a special assistant to the general manager.

White spent 8 of his 10 Major League seasons playing in Cincinnati, from 1878-80 and again from 1882-86. In his career White won 229-166 with a 2.28 ERA, 394 complete games and 36 shutouts in 401 starts and 2 relief appearances. He made all but 5 of those appearances for the Reds, except for 3 starts for Boston in 1877 and 2 starts for Detroit in 1881.

He won at least 30 games 5 times and led the American Association in victories with 40 in 1882 and 43 in 1883. During his career White also led the league in winning percentage (40-12, .769, 1882), appearances (76, 1879), complete games twice (75 in 1879, 52 in 1882), shutouts 3 times (8 in 1882, 6 in 1883, 7 in 1884), innings pitched twice (680 in 1879, 480 in 1882) and ERA (2.09 in 1883). In 1879, he completed all 75 of his starts.

Howsam, 86, is recognized as the architect of the Big Red Machine. He was the club's general manager from 1967-78 and again from 1983-84, but he also served as president and chief operating officer from 1973-78 and 1983-85. Under Howsam's direction, the Reds were baseball's dominant team in the 1970s, a decade during which they won 6 division titles, 4 NL pennants and World Series championships in 1975 and '76. Known as one of baseball's most shrewd traders, he also built the Reds' minor league system into one of the strongest in the game.

Reds Ballparks Through The Years

Union Grounds (1869-70)

Union Grounds served as the first home of baseball's original professional team. The park was located near the area now occupied by the Museum Center in the Union Terminal train station. Anchored by a grandstand called "Grand Duchess," the park could seat up to 4,000 fans.

Avenue Grounds (1876-79)

The Reds headed two miles north from Union Grounds to erect Avenue Grounds, which featured a grandstand that could seat up to 3,000 fans. The ballpark was approximately four miles from the heart of the city's population, so horse-drawn streetcars and trains were a popular way to travel to the park.

Bank Street Grounds (1880-83)

The Reds moved closer to the city with the opening of Bank Street Grounds prior to the 1880 season. The ballpark was located on the north side of Bank Street, south of Western Avenue and just west of McLean Avenue, and could seat up to 4,000 fans. Innovative scoreboard features included players' names and out-of-town scores.

League Park (1884-1901)

Originally called American Park (in reference to Cincinnati's membership in the American Association), the park was renamed League Park (in reference to the National League) in 1890. The park featured a covered grandstand with leather-cushioned seats and open seats along the first- and third-base sides.

Palace of the Fans (1902-11)

Following a major fire, the Reds rebuilt the main grandstand of League Park in 1902. Today, baseball historians refer to the updated facility as Palace of the Fans. The park featured an illustrious grandstand with pillars and columns carved by hand, as well as 19 fashion boxes (much like opera boxes) and inexpensive field-level seating.

Crosley Field (1912-70)

Originally named Redland Field and renamed in 1934, Crosley Field was the first Reds ballpark to feature a double-decked grandstand. The facility, located at the corner of Western Avenue and Findlay Street, was the site of baseball's first night game and hosted Cincinnati's first World Series Championship team.

Riverfront Stadium (1970-2002)

The Cincinnati Reds shared Riverfront Stadium with the NFL's Cincinnati Bengals until 1999. The multipurpose stadium, which could seat approximately 56,000 fans, was considered state-of-the-art upon its opening in June 1970. The facility hosted five pennant winners and three World Series Championship teams.

Great American Ball Park (2003-present)

The Reds' new home kicked off the 2003 season with one of the most anticipated debuts in team history. The ballpark, with room for more than 42,000 fans, includes a variety of seating and dining options, a state-of-the-art sound and scoreboard system and an array of historical elements.

One Perfect Night

On September 16, 1988, left-hander Tom Browning tossed the only perfect game in Cincinnati Reds history when he retired all 27 batters faced in a 1-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers.

It was only the 14th perfect game (9.0 innings or more) in Major League history, just the third in modern National League history and the first no-hitter by a Reds pitcher since Tom Seaver blanked the Cardinals, 4-0, on June 16, 1978.

Browning's perfect game capped off an incredible season in which he posted an 18-5 record, including a 16-2 mark after June 6.

1919 Series Rocked By Scandal

In the end, the rumors would be true. Following the 1919 "Black Sox Scandal," two members of the Chicago White Sox made tearful confessions to a Cook County grand jury that they had, indeed, been involved in a scheme to throw the 1919 World Series. That day, Eddie Cicotte and Shoeless Joe Jackson told the story of accepting a large amount of cash, presumably supplied by known gambler Arnold Rothstein, that would be split by eight members of the Sox.

Pitcher Cicotte, outfielder Jackson, third baseman Buck Weaver, center fielder Oscar (Happy) Felsch, first baseman Arnold (Chick) Gandil, utility infielder Fred McMullin, shortstop Charles (Swede) Risberg and pitcher Claude (Lefty) Williams had conspired with gamblers to throw the Series, and thus entered the history books as the infamous "Black Sox."

None of the players were convicted in court, but all eight were banned from the game for life by the first commissioner of baseball, former Federal Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, who was hired to clean up America's growing favorite pastime. The supposed involvement of certain players was something of a mystery in its own right. Weaver, who had known about the conspiracy from the beginning, refused to take part and batted .324 in the Series. He was banned for not exposing his teammates. Jackson, who admitted taking $5,000, batted .375 with a homer and six RBI. But, there were those who were as guilty as sin. Risberg committed four errors and batted .080, but did not receive a cent. Gandil - the organizer of the scam - on the other hand, walked away with $30,000 and immediately announced his retirement. Cicotte lost two of his three starts and earned a $10,000 payday. He later told the grand jury it was not worth the effort.

The award is presented each year by the Hall of Fame to a broadcaster "for major contributions to the game of baseball." Brennaman, Red Barber (WSAI, 1934-38) and Russ Hodges (WFBE, 1932) are the only Reds announcers ever to receive the Hall of Fame's prestigious broadcasting award. The 2004 season will be Brennaman's 40th as a broadcaster. He joined the Reds radio team in 1974 and for the past 30 seasons has shared the 700 WLW Radio booth with Reds Hall of Fame pitcher Joe Nuxhall. For 1 game on the Baseball Network in 1989, he shared the Reds' television booth with son, Thom, who currently serves as a broadcaster for the Arizona Diamondbacks and for Fox' national baseball network. Brennaman has been named Ohio Sportscaster of the Year 12 times, most recently in 1998. He won the Virginia Sportscaster of the Year Award four times while broadcasting basketball games for the American Basketball Association's Virginia Squires, baseball games for the New York Mets' Class AAA affiliate in Norfolk and football games for both Virginia Tech and William & Mary. He also has broadcast games during the NCAA's men's basketball tournament, including 15 regional tournaments and 11 Final Fours. Brennaman and his wife, Sherri, live in Cincinnati. On Aug. 11, 1959, vs the Milwaukee Braves he became the first Reds pitcher ever to strike out four batters in an inning, tying a Major League record, and he still ranks among the organization's all-time leaders with 484 games (third), 2,169 innings pitched (fifth) and 1,289 strikeouts (third). Major League Baseball Rules of Interest

Calculating the "Magic Number": Determine the number of games to be played by the team in the lead. Add one to that number. Subtract from that figure the number of games ahead in the loss column from the closest opponent.

Determining Earned Run Average: Multiply earned runs by nine, then divide total by innings pitched.

Determining Batting Average: Divide total hits by total at-bats.

Determine Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total number of at-bats.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Divide hits + walks + hit-by-pitch, by at-bats + walks + hit-by-pitch + sac flies.

Determining Fielding Percentage: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

The Winning Pitcher: The starting pitcher will be credited with the win only if the pitcher has pitched at least five complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game.

EXCEPTION: The "must-pitch-five-complete-innings" rule in respect to the starting pitcher shall be in effect for all games of six or more innings. In a five-inning game, credit the starting pitcher with a game won only if he has pitched at least four complete innings and his team not only is in the lead when he is replaced, but remains in the lead the remainder of the game. When the starting pitcher does not meet the preceding criteria and more than one relief pitcher is used, the victory shall be awarded on the following basis:

- (1) When, during the tenure of the starting pitcher, the winning team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game, credit the victory to the relief pitcher judged by the official scorer to have been the most effective.
- (2) Whenever the score is tied, the game becomes a new contest insofar as the winning and losing pitcher is concerned.
- (3) Once the opposing team assumes the lead, all pitchers who have pitched up to that point are excluded from being credited with the victory except the current pitcher.
- (4) The winning relief pitcher shall be the one who is the pitcher of record when his team assumes the lead and maintains it to the finish of the game. EXCEPTION: Do not credit a victory to a relief pitcher who is ineffective in a brief appearance, when a succeeding relief pitcher pitches effectively in helping his team maintain the lead. In such cases, credit the succeeding relief pitcher with the victory.

Earning a Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all of the following conditions:

- (1) He is the pitcher that finished the game won by his team.
- (2) He is not the winning pitcher.
- (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions:
 - a. He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or
 - b. He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run either already on base or is one of the first two batters he faces), or
 - c. He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Assists: An assist shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects a batted or thrown ball in such a way that a putout results, or would have resulted except for a subsequent error by a fielder. Only one assist and no more shall be credited to each fielder who throws or deflects the ball in a run-down play which results in a putout, or would have resulted in a putout, except for a subsequent error.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streak: A consecutive game hitting streak shall not be terminated if the player's plate appearance(s) results in a base on balls, hit batter, defensive interference or sac bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sac fly and no hit. Consecutive game hitting streaks do not carry over from season to season.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one-half inning on defense or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from the game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirement of this rule, the streak shall continue.

Suspended Games: All performance in the completion of a suspended game shall be considered as occurring on the original date of the game.

Rain Delays: Once a game has been temporarily delayed by rain, NL umpires have been instructed to wait at least one hour and 15 minutes before calling the game. According to rule 3.10 C, an umpire shall not call the game until at least 30 minutes after he has suspended play.

National League Curfew: There is no curfew in the National League. The game is in the hands of the umpires once it has started.

Major League Year: 172 days of service time constitutes a full year in the Major Leagues.

Rookie Status at the Major League Level: To be considered a rookie, a player must not have more than 130 at-bats, or 50 innings-pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the Major League 25-player limit (excluding time in the military).

Waiver Regulations: From 30 days after the start of the season, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings, at the time waivers expire. Otherwise, players are available for claiming off waivers in reverse order of standings at the close of the preceding season. With respect to trades, no waivers are necessary from 5 p.m. (ET) the day after the scheduled end of the regular season through July 31. Waivers are necessary from August 1 through the day after the scheduled end of the regular season.

More than 2.3 million fans visited Great American Ball Park to watch the Reds play their inaugural season in the new state-of-the-art facility.

Name and Logos

Cincinnati Nicknames Over the Years

The Cincinnati franchise began play in 1869 as the Red Stockings due, not surprisingly, to the color of their game hosiery. The club has undergone a few name changes over the years, first shortening the name to Reds, then briefly during the 1950s, being known as the Redlegs.

Opinions vary as to exactly when "Red Stockings" became shortened to just "Reds," but team histories refer to the club as Reds when the National League was founded in 1876, and by 1882 the more formal Red Stockings name was no longer in favor. In fact, instead of "Red Stockings," fans of that era might have been more likely to refer to the Cincinnati team as the "Porkopolitans," a reference to the city's (and the club hierarchy's) interest in the meat-packing industry.

During the 1950s, the era of Joseph McCarthy and the Red scare, the term "Red" was seen in a very different light. Thus during the seasons of 1953-58, the Cincinnati ballclub was called the Redlegs, so as not to give any appearance of an affiliation with Communism.

GREATSM AMERICAN BALL PARKSM

On July 7, 2000 Great American Insurance Company, one of the oldest insurance companies in the United States, and the Cincinnati Reds, America's first professional baseball team, joined forces when the two organizations announced a 30-year agreement under which the new home of the Reds would be called Great American Ball Park. Great American, founded in 1872, is the lead member of the Great American Insurance Group and is a wholly-owned subsidiary of American Financial Group, Inc. (NYSE: AFG).

Reds in the Community

The Cincinnati Reds Community Fund (CRCF) is the official nonprofit organization of the Cincinnati Reds. As a designated 501 (c) 3 company, CRCF was created to promote the physical, social and education development of youth through sports and other activities. For additional information, please visit our Web site at www.cincinnati-redscommunityfund.com or call (513) 765 -7000 and ask to speak to the Executive Director of the community fund.

One of CRCF's much anticipated and annual fundraisers is the Redlegs Run for Home, a 5k run/walk. This family-oriented run takes place in early September as participants start near Great American Ball Park and wind their way through downtown Cincinnati. The best part of the run is that participants actually finish inside the ballpark near home plate! Since the run started in 2002, over 4,000 participants have enjoyed this fun run.

July 2003 saw the launch of CRCF's first youth outreach program, the Reds Rookie Success League (RRSL). Reds Rookie Success League is a noncompetitive, coed, character building summer baseball league targeting at risk 8-9 year olds. It is a six-week program that taught valuable life lessons to the children while utilizing the game of baseball as the delivery vehicle. Big Red Machine outfielder George Foster is the league's first Commissioner. RRSL was successful in its inaugural year due to the contributions of Cincinnati Recreation Commission, Tri-Health, the Character Council of Greater Cincinnati & Northern Kentucky as well as the many volunteer coaches and staff. If you would like to learn more information or volunteer for RRSL, please call (513) 765-7000 and ask to speak to the Executive Director.

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club. These local winners are announced in September during Roberto Clemente Day. The winner of the national Roberto Clemente Award is announced during a pre game ceremony at the World Series. Past winners include Jamie Moyer, Jim Thome, Curt Schilling, Al Leiter, Tony Gwynn, Willie Mays, Ozzie Smith, and Cal Ripken, Jr.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized its obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

Historical Elements at Great American Ball Park

"Spirit of Baseball" Relief

Adorning the west end of the Reds administration building is the "Spirit of Baseball," a limestone relief that stands 50' tall and 20' wide. The relief depicts the romance of the game with the Cincinnati riverfront as a background and four characters in the forefront. Three of the characters – a catcher, a batter and a fielder – are in the clouds, and a child dressed in a uniform with a bat is on the ground. The actual look of the relief varies, as sunlight and artificial lighting allow shadows to alter the look of the sculpture throughout the day.

1869 Team Mosaic

As fans enter the main gates of Great American Ball Park, they're greeted by two team mosaics. One mosaic depicts the original nine of the Cincinnati Red Stockings, baseball's first team of professionals. The mosaic, which is comprised of Italian marble tiles, includes historic Cincinnati as a background and players in their traditional uniforms.

Big Red Machine Team Mosaic

A second mosaic depicts the 1975 World Champion Cincinnati Reds team. With downtown Cincinnati, Riverfront Stadium and the Roebling Bridge as a backdrop, the mosaic features the "Great Eight" of the Big Red Machine – Ken Griffey, Tony Perez, Johnny Bench, Joe Morgan, Pete Rose, Cesar Geronimo, Dave Concepcion and George Foster.

Famous-Dates Banners

A series of banners featuring memorable dates in Reds history align the outside of the ballpark along Second Street. Each banner features the name, date and description of each event, including Oct. 9, 1919 (the Reds first World Series Championship), Sept. 11, 1985 (Pete Rose's record-breaking hit) and Sept. 22, 1996 (Barry Larkin becoming baseball's first 30-30 shortstop). A separate set of banners, located in Crosley Terrace, depicts the memorable moments from the Crosley Field era (1934-'69).

Crosley-Era Banners

In addition to the banners lining Second Street, a second set of banners is located within Crosley Terrace and pays tribute to the memorable moments that took place in Crosley Field. Those six banners feature events such as baseball's first night game (May 24, 1935), Johnny Vander Meer's consecutive no-hitters (June 11 and 15, 1938) and the Reds World Series victory over the Tigers (Oct. 8, 1940).

Scoreboard Mural

The back of Great American Ball Park's scoreboard, which is viewable from the U.S. Bank Arena plaza level and other parts of eastern downtown, contains a massive photograph of a weathered bat and ball. The equipment has a historic value, though. It was used by Hit King Pete Rose to club hit No. 4,192, which broke Ty Cobb's longstanding record in 1985.

Retired Numbers

On the façade located under the press box in Great American Ball Park are all the retired Reds uniform numbers. The six Reds who have had their numbers retired are #1 Fred Hutchinson, #5 Johnny Bench, #8 Joe Morgan, #18 Ted Kluszewski, #20 Frank Robinson and #24 Tony Perez.

Crosley-Era Clock

The Longines clock at Crosley Field was a unique feature in the Reds former ballpark. That historic element has been brought back to life, thanks to a replica of the clock that adorns the main scoreboard in Great American Ball Park. The current clock is significantly larger than its predecessor.

Concourse Quote Band

Stretching the circumference of the ballpark's concourse is a band of quotes that the team feels best represents the spirit of baseball in Cincinnati. An example is Pete Rose's famous line, "I'd walk through hell in a gasoline suit to play baseball." The quote band is located on the suite level and begins on the ballpark's third-base side.

Scout's Alley

A special concession and lounge area entitled Scout's Alley is one of the most unique sections of Great American Ball Park. The approximately 1,000 fans located in the Scout and lower-Club seating sections during game days can access this private area, which has a "baseball scout" motif. Historic photographs, as well as displays of the "five tools" of prospects, tastefully give this area its charm. Guests can also see an example of a Major League scouting map, pictures of former Reds scouts, actual contracts and scouting reports, and a mock desktop of a Reds scout.

Mock Infield

Nearly two-thirds of fans entering Great American Ball Park will stroll through the 50,000-square-foot Crosley Terrace, one of the highlights of the Reds new-ballpark project and a tribute to Crosley Field, which was the Reds home from 1934-'69. The terrace contains about an acre of concrete, which is landscaped with grass and trees that resemble a playing field. The "infield" contains a pitcher's mound built to Major League Baseball dimensions of the day, and grass in the terrace is sloped at the same incline as the infamous Crosley outfield.

Bronze Statues

The mock infield of Crosley Terrace is brought to life by the inclusion of four bronze statues honoring Reds greats from the Crosley era. The four were chosen in voting by fans, who were asked to select one catcher, one pitcher and two hitters. The Reds received more than 17,000 ballots cast through the Internet and at Cinergy Field. Ted Kluszewski (hitter), Ernie Lombardi (catcher), Joe Nuxhall (pitcher) and Frank Robinson (hitter) received the most votes. The statues, which were sculpted by local artist Thomas Tsuchiya, were phased into the terrace one at a time throughout the season. Kluszewski was unveiled on Opening Day 2003 and was followed by Nuxhall (July 2003), Robinson (September 2003) and Lombardi (early 2004).

Dining Options at Great American Ball Park

The Machine Room Grille

Great American Ball Park's brewpub, located in the left-field corner, is a dedication to the Big Red Machine, the Reds teams that dominated baseball in the 1970s. This spacious bar and grille has a blue-collar feel, much like the Reds team of the era. Brick and steel finishes, with an exposed ceiling, set the tone. Additional features of the brewpub include a mini electronic scoreboard, views of the playing field, mock foul poles, outside seats, the zamboni used at Cinergy Field and plenty of Reds memorabilia. Dishes include everything from burgers to pizza to barbeque.

Fox Sports Net Club 4192

The lounge, a dedication to Pete Rose's record-breaking hit, is open to guests who have tickets for the Club and Scout seating sections. These guests can access this exclusive area before, during and after games. In addition to a large sit-down bar, Fox Sports Net Club 4192 offers a variety of food and beverage options at chef-style food stations. The lounge boasts over 13,000 square feet of space, and fans can relax in traditional dining seats, bar stools at a centrally located four-sided bar or at drink rails facing the ballpark. Comfortable lounge areas also provide cushioned seating overlooking the ballpark.

The Riverfront Club

Located in the right-field section of the ballpark and overlooking the Ohio River is the Riverfront Club, which offers world-class cuisine from an award-winning chef. Access to this upscale restaurant and bar requires a membership. Members can enjoy a meal before the game or enjoy full service while watching the game from the Riverfront Club's three terraces or on the televisions located throughout the restaurant. For membership inquiries, call (513) 765-7097.

The Diamond Club

For guests who have purchased Diamond Seats, the exclusive Diamond Lounge, which is located directly behind home plate under the field-level seating, is one of the main perks. This exclusive area features beverage service and a gourmet buffet, as well as a window that looks directly into the tunnel that leads from the Reds clubhouse to the dugout. Guests also receive free, in-seat food and beverage service when leaving the lounge for their seats.

Premium Seating

Diamond Seats

The most exclusive of the premium-seating options at Great American Ball Park are the Diamond Seats, which are located in the first eight rows directly behind home plate. The seats, which cost $200 per game, are wider than other seats in the ballpark (approximately 2 inches), are padded and fully upholstered. Perks for Diamond-Seat holders include access to the private Diamond Lounge, as well as in-seat food and beverage service. The price tag for Diamond Seats is all-inclusive, meaning that all food and beverages are included in the ticket price.

Scout Seats

The Scout Seats, priced at $65 per seat, are located directly behind home plate and start with the ninth row. The section earned its name because these are the seats that Major League scouts occupy to evaluate talent. These padded seats, which are about 2 inches wider than other seats in the ballpark, include a host of amenities, including in-seat food and beverage service, access to private concession and restroom areas, as well as access to the exclusive Fox Sports Net Club 4192.

Club Seats

Directly above the field-level seats, Club Seats offer great views of the field and of the Ohio River, in-seat specialty food and beverage service, and exclusive access to Fox Sports Net Club 4192. Perks that come with these seats, which range from $48-55, include the option to purchase tickets for Reds playoff games and priority reservation privileges for non-event-day use of Fox Sports Net Club 4192 when purchased as season tickets.

Suites #8 (Joe Morgan) and #24 (Tony Perez) can accommodate up to 32 people (24-person minimum) each and are equipped with 24 outdoor stadium-style seats and eight indoor seats. The cost per person for the suites is $71, which includes a game ticket, catered buffet and beverages.

The price is $61 per person, and the package includes a game ticket, catered buffet and beverages.

RedLegs Landing

RedLegs Landing is ideal for mingling before the game on this open-air patio party area. Guests can take in the spectacular sightlines of the field, the out-of-town scores, and the state-of-the-art digital video scoreboard from this section of private ballpark seating. DERNELL STENSON 1978-2003

The Cincinnati Reds received devastating news the morning of November 6, 2003, as authorities in Chandler, Arizona reported that outfielder Darnell Stenson had been killed.

Stenson, a 1996 third-round pick of the Boston Red Sox, was claimed off waivers by the Reds in February 2003. After a successful '03 season that included Southern League All-Star honors and a Major League debut with the Reds, Stenson reported to the Arizona Fall League. At the time of his death, Stenson ranked third in the AFL with a .394 batting average and a .453 on-base percentage.

More than 1,400 relatives, friends, teammates and coaches attended his November 10 funeral in LaGrange, GA. Darnell often was praised for his professionalism and warm personality in the clubhouse. The Reds continue to extend prayers and deepest sympathies to his family, friends and teammates.

A memorial fund has been set up in Darnell Stenson's honor. Donations can be sent to:
